Grandpa And The Kid (Viejo Series Book 7)

Synopsis

Adversity is the stimulus of life. It moves one to develop or collapse. A young boy loses his entire family to a calamity and forces him to change. His mother's last wish was to find a man he has just barely heard about and doesn't know if he will be received well or not, but he must meet his Grandpa in Texas.

Customer Reviews

Quick and easy to read, real to life, romantic,, but not overwhelming. Good facts on the old Mexican culture. Sometimes left to want more fact and details on other characters. Liked the Spanish English mix. JPO

You never know what life is going to throw your way. But when you come from good Texas stock, nothing is to big for you to overcome.

Excellent reading I don't know when I have enjoyed a book more. It is well written thought enjoyable. I wish there were more books like it

So nice to read a book without foul language, interesting plot that flowed nicely. It is clean enough for young adults to enjoy.

Grandpa teaches the kid how to be a small rancher in the early days in Texas.

Kept me entertained through-out the book.

Enjoyed it very much
