Implications Abound: A Collection Of Curiously Christian Comics

Synopsis

Adam4d.com is a curiously Christian webcomic written and illustrated by Adam Ford AKA Adam4d. Thatâ™s me so Iâ™ll stop talking in the third-person now. This is the first collection of Adam4d.com content in book form. In it you will find a compilation of some of the most-popular comics from the website thus far, each one revised, polished, and upgraded so as to not be identical to the version published online. You will also find some brand-new material. You will not find any traditional-publishing formalities, nauseating self-promotion, or endorsements from famous people. I hope you enjoy it.

Customer Reviews

Adam Ford AKA Adam4d is a Christian, husband, father, and author/illustrator of the webcomic Adam4d.com.

Bought this as a gift for a friend but read it before passing it along. Really enjoyed it and as I read, thought of many more friends/family that would probably enjoy it. It really discusses and lays out theology in a fun and easy to understand format. It is really well done in terms of being succinct, funny, and adheres to the Truth of God. I think it would be great as a gift for almost anyone, but especially as a jr high or high school graduation present.

Funny, accessible, and profound. This book isn't written purely for laughs, it's not fluffy and lightweight; it is highly relevant to the times and general religious culture of the United States. I recommend this book for anyone seeking the actual truth about what Christianity as Christ intended actually means. Lend it to your 13-year-old who's bored with church, lend it to your 65-year-old parent who still can't get behind your beliefs (but add in a couple of sticky notes about what the internet slang means :)

I do our church bulletin and this has given me wonderful ideas. We also use some of the great "points" as starting places for our small group discussions. Adam has hit the nail on the head in these clever depictions of issues facing the church today.

I have been getting Adam4D's Web postings for some time. He has a gift for putting many complex issues into a wording type story that can be easily explained to even a Junior High kid. That in itself can be helpful in being able to articulate a Christians proper perspective without a high emotional entanglement that many may have on some of these issues. I not only recommend his book here, but to go to his website (...) and browsing through his archives. In addition he also has a Satire site worth checking out. (...)

Hilarious, touching, convicting, educational, encouraging! This is a man I feel comfortable recommending to anyone--Christian or otherwise--because I can trust his work to be true to scripture, high quality, offensive only when necessary, and always engaging. Love it!

I had gotten addicted to Adam4d.com and wanted to support his work by buying the book. What a pleasant surprise to find some of his best works that I had missed online! He has a gift for reducing seemingly complex issues to very simple and understandable truths in a way that really reach your heart. You can read this book in one afternoon, and then you'll want to pass it along to someone else you care about.

This is a great little book of Christian comics. I've been a fan of the webcomic for ages, and this is just the kind of quality work I'd expect. Adam's insights and challenges are pointed and clear, and his execution is fantastic. I've never read anyone else who compares with his level of honesty and conviction, mixed so well with clever satire and conversational, thought-provoking ideas. I highly recommend this book!

Great little compilation of pithy comics about Christianity. It has a bit of everything for the Christian reader. Thoughtful points and poignant moments of reflection. Adam4d does a great job treating serious topics with lightness and yet without vulgarity.
