My matron of honor gave me Never Throw Rice at a Pisces by Stacey Wolf, I think it saved my sanity and probably saved me from my fiancé calling off the engagement. I had gotten so wrapped up in all of the nitty gritty details that I was taking all of the fun out of planning the most special day of our lives together.....that is until we have children. Anyway, I highly recommend this book to every bride to read before she starts the process of planning her wedding. I am so thankful for this book, it was so fun to read about our signs and discover what will make us both happy and hopefully relaxed during the process. I'm totally re-focused now and can get back to planning our beautiful wedding with a light heart!

On a topic that I find is often unbearably stuffy, Never Throw Rice at a Pisces is a wonderful breath of fresh air. You don't have to believe in astrology to enjoy Ms. Wolf's take on a great wedding planning guide. The case studies she uses throughout make for interesting reading, and her breezy tone lightens up what for many is a stressful topic. This is a great bridal shower gift - you will find it being passed around and discussed as everyone wants to see what they can expect from their Aries mother-in-law or as they look for music ideas that will appeal to their Gemini fiancé. Should be a new standard in the wedding planning canon.

Never Throw Rice at a Pisces by Stacey Wolf, is a delightful book given to me, while planning my own upcoming wedding. I enjoyed the light hearted way she explains why we astrologically make the choices we make. From cover to cover, I found it fun, entertaining, full of information and recommend giving it as a gift, to bring smiles to brides to be, who are in the process of planning their weddings.
