These are the BEST baby shower gifts or 1 year old gifts. I keep a couple on hand just for the occasions. While everyone else is getting clothes, I think down the educational path. These are fun but educational. They are the perfect size for little hands. I have had a set for both my kids and just love them. Great for a country family!

Very good quality and they make an interesting learning tool. They each have a different texture to touch and scratch. Our son really like them.

These flash cards are the best! They are large and relatively thick, so they are easy for my 15-month-old daughter to hold. They stand up to some pretty rough treatment. The images look like what they are supposed to be depicting (unlike some flash cards). The cards are colorful and attractive, and my daughter actually asks my husband and I to play with her using these cards--if she can see them on the shelf or counter, then she'll point and act excited. Very cute. She loves to touch the soft fuzzy parts on the animals. My only (very minor) complaint is that some of the words are a bit overspecific. For example, there is a card for "combine harvester." All in all, though, these are beautifully designed cards that we use every day.

I bought all 6 sets of these flash cards, and really love them. at first I was disappointed that there were only 16 cards per pack, but once we got them out and started going through them, I realized how great they are. they are very sturdy and thick - they will easily last through my 2 year old and her little sister when she is old enough. they are great for both young and older toddlers, as younger toddlers can simply learn the words, and older toddlers can learn the more complex concepts. on the back of each card there are ideas for parents, and also a translation into Spanish, French, German, and Chinese. I can see how we will get a lot out of these cards. for now, my daughter loves to play with them. She takes them all out, looks at them, talks about what is on them, and then puts them away. (Love how it's fun for her to put them away - I also think it helps her with her fine motor skills.) She also likes to "play" them with me, where we go through some of the more advanced concepts. Then of course I hear her doing those concepts on her own later. They are great!

Great for my 18 month old. She loves learning words with these and also taught her to clean up with these too since she loves to dump them out of the box!!

These are great cards but I only gave them a 3 because they are so slick, our little grandson has slipped on them several times.

Sturdy cards. I was hoping they would be stiff and these are. My granddaughter won't be able to bend these. Great art work. Touch and feel is nice added benefit I will be buying more sets

I like these cards very much and use them in teaching Kindermusik. My issue is that they have some of the animals in both the Animal deck and the Farm deck. Pig, Horse, Cow, Duck...The farm deck has the animal and it's baby. They are different pictures. The good thing is if you lose an animal card, you have a replacement.
