Sorcha (The Highland Clan Book 8)

Synopsis

Sorcha Ramsay is as willful as she is beautiful, and she has mastered the art of convincing others to do her bidding. She coerces a few guards to bring her on a hunting trip, but when an unidentified archer targets them, Sorcha is restricted to the castle grounds. Worse, she's assigned a lout of a guardian—Cailean, the maddeningly handsome guard who saved her from the archer—until her sire returns from a visit to the Grants. How can she show her sire, the infamous Logan Ramsay, she's grown up if she's not allowed her freedom? Though he intends never to marry, Cailean finds himself captivated by Sorcha's beauty and brash charm. He's determined to keep her safe from the archer, whether she wants him to or not. Then Sorcha's sire returns with news that has the potential to ignite the Highlands: Laird Alexander Grant has been badly injured. Trouble is brewing, and the archer, who may or may not be connected to a larger plot against the Ramsays and the Grants, continues to target Sorcha. As the danger mounts and Cailean and Sorcha are brought together again and again, their heated attraction becomes a deeper connection. But can Cailean convince Logan, the most fearsome man in the Highlands, that he is a worthy match for his firstborn daughter?

Keira knocks it out of the park again with this story. I loved this book as I have with all her books related to this series. Characters grow older, younger ones come up thru the ranks and into their own. Every book is stand-alone but to fully enjoy read in sequence. But truth be told I hadn't.

These are stories I will read over again. Sorcha is so much like her father, Logan and I love Cailean as her protector. I had to chuckle over how he gets Logan's horse in his time of need. Enjoy this author. I will continue to pre-order her books so I don't miss any!

This is another wonderful book in 'The Highland Series'. Sorcha's and Cailean's love story is very sweet. Cailean kept saving Sorcha's life through out the entire book. He just kept showing her how much she meant to him. Loved Logan in this book. He was the typical jealous dad who didn't want to let go of his 'baby'. It was nice to see the entire family and all the related clans reunite at the end. Cannot wait to read Kyla's story and see the great Alex Grant give away his daughter. I wonder who will be brave enough

I cant get enough of the Grants and the Ramsay's. In this book Sorcha Ramsay, daughter to Logan and Gwyn is all grown up and out of the keep walls trying to kill a deer or a boar to impress her father with her hunting skills. Suddenly arrows start to fly and she on the ground in the arms of Cailean, a Ramsay warrior who continues to rescue her, not just this time but many more times. He swears he will never marry but Sorcha Ramsay is not just another girl and he keeps risking his life time after time for her, I can hardly wait for each of Ms Montclair's books and when they come out, I grab them right away, this book will stand well alone but best when you have read the other books so you know the families.

Keira has done it again! I love all of her novels on the Grants and Ramsey's and now the 2nd generation is just as good. Sorcha has it all-- drama, adventure, excitement and romance. Her relationship with her sire Logan Ramsay has always been a very strong one. This is a fun read to follow how Logan deals with the developing relationship between his first born and the love of her life. I loved every word of this story!

This was another sweet and adventurous Highland story. I am addicted to this series. The only reason it took me so long is because I knew I'd have to wait down the next book so I slow read this one to hold me over. Sorcha and Cailien were treated by Logan the way any daddy treats his little girl when he knows he's going to loose her to the love of a man. The story was true to anything any young women would experience today being the baby girl. I can't wait till Kyle's story. Happy Reading

What a great addition to the Grant/Ramsey clan stories. Sorcha can be a stubborn fool. It would take one very special man to be able to handle her independence. Cailean's that man! Sorcha and Cailean's story is one that melts your heart! So many twist and turns that leave you breathless! Sorcha being her Papa's "wee lass" and the antics of Logan Ramsey had me in tears from laughing so hard! I would definitely suggest that you read all of her books starting with Alex and Maggie's story. Rescued by a Highlander! (To get all of the wonderfulness of her stories and to understand the twist and turns!)

I loved every minute of this story. It had everything and so much more that you could want in a story. It was beautifully written with twists and turns to keep you on your toes from the beginning to the end. It has passionate characters, that is emotional pack story from the beginning to the end. I give it 10 stars. Thank you Keira for such a wonderful escape. Debi Allen

Out of the Highland clans books this is my favorite. Cailieans and Sorchas story is magnificent. Logan is the perfect Highland father. I also enjoy the fact that the books include both old and the new clan members.
