Customer Reviews

I love this book. I have used it to do some research on alternative sexuality (BDSM/Fetish) and the religious impact on our reproductive lives. I love the photos and illustrations: They help one see the beauty of our bodies and serve as visual Enneagram which capture our attention and illuminate the prose and scholarly information within. This is a book for seekers who are wanting a spiritual approach to learning about sexuality and their spirit. It is not for religious prudes, ultra-conservatives who feel that sexuality is just for heterosexual procreation. This book takes you beyond vanilla and explains how religious institutions mapped out and claimed ownership of our bodies, forever changing our ability to see ourselves freely.

Much like the Discoveries series books, this book had phenomenal pictures, and a wonderful documentary materials section in the back. The pages are the nice glossy kind too... okay, so enough about the aesthetics...The content was so educational, spanning all of history and discussing the relationship between sexual activities and spirituality / religion. This book covers so much, so I will simply list the chapter heading, and give a little synopsis of each one.
