Roger Priddy's passion for educating children through fun, informative and engaging books has led him to create some of publishing's most enduring and successful nonfiction early learning books. Roger lives in London and has three children, who have been the inspiration behind many of his best publishing ideas.

Our family had an 8 hour plane ride. Our 2 year old daughter loved this sticker book. It kept her busy for over an hour, (great for a 2 year old!) We love this series of books at home, so it was fun for her to be able to have a tactile interaction with it. She loved identifying every picture, by name and color. An older child would also enjoy this book. Kids take a sticker from the back, then search for the correct page to stick it to. It is a great busy activity.

Love these books! Educational and easy for little hands!

My 20 month old doesn't play with the stickers yet, but she still really enjoys learning the words from all the pictures in it!

good.

Very good activities for toddlers (less than 3 years old).

Entertaining for 30 min! That's a long time in toddler minutes!

Great activity book for my 2 yr old! She loves it.
