Customer Reviews

Janet and Stewart Farrar have authored eight books on witchcraft and have traveled globally giving workshops and seminars

I truly enjoy reading a variety of books that shows me different and insightful views along my chosen path. This book was very informative, showing me yet another vision of the faith. With each writing and the author's take on things, gives me more and more information that allows me to make my ideas and decisions on how I wish to walk. I do not recommend taking each book at its face value, accepting everything as written in stone. Instead, I allow all information in, and based on the varied readings, use them all as a whole, deciding what I feel is right for me. I would definitely recommend this book to anyone looking to broaden their horizons and looking to fill your need for more and more feeding of the soul.

Kudos!

If you are new to Wiccan this book is way over your head. Lots of info. Not a lot for the solitary practitioner

It is pretty pricey. But it came just in time and was nicely packaged. Still have much to read but it's pretty interesting

Any Wiccan who does not appreciate this book is obviously insane. This is as close to the original ways of the craft you will ever come close to. None of that new age fluffy stuff you see today.

Didn't expect it to be so thick but nonetheless I love it and appreciate it !! Thank you !!

This book is useful. It is full of sabbat information and ritual concerning each. Gardnerian in practices. Not for those with a small vocabulary. I would not make this my 'bible' but I have adapted plenty for my BOS. Also written for coven use but don't be afraid to adapt.
