Peppy In The Wild West

Synopsis

A lost, all-ages, classic graphic novel • by the creator of Tintin! Created by Hergé© when he was drawing the first few TintinÂ comics, and first serialized in black and white in 1934, this is the first publication of his lighthearted adventureÂ Peppy in the Wild West •Â and the only English translation since 1969.Â When his hat business fails, the bear Peppy heads to the Old West to start a new life, accompanied by his sweet wife, Virginny, and his faithful steed, Bluebell. They find a patch of grass somewhere in California, where Peppyâ™s hats start a craze among the local Rabbit-Ears tribe. What follows is a rollicking cascade of one thing after another: not one, but two kidnappings, a river full of gold, a bulldog outlaw, and a side trip to Santa Barbara!Â Full-color illustrations throughout.

Customer Reviews

Hergé© (Georges Remi) created the iconic Tintin in 1929, who went on to sell over 160 million copies worldwide. He died in 1983, but his work lives on, inspiring the Hergé© museum (opened in 2009) in his native Belgium, a Steven Spielberg-directed motion-capture blockbuster in 2011, and a record-setting auction ($1.6 million for a single drawing) in 2012.
