REvision: 2000 Year Old Principles That Are Relevant For Women Entrepreneurs Today

Synopsis

In your midst is a tool packed with history, humor, and hues of practical principles for both your personal and professional lives. There are countless stories of resilience and courage in the Bible, but none have ever been told like the eyewitness accounts in these pages. Witty, refreshing, and seemingly controversial at times, women in the Bible share insightful perspectives of life changing events. Foundational truths that remain relevant for today's contemporary woman, encourage deliberate introspection. REvision offers an opportunity to reposition, or take another look at your own personal values, beliefs, and visual resolve. No matter where you are along life's journey, there's latitude to create an even greater expression of influence and impact.

Customer Reviews

Seriously hilarious, REvision highlights women in the Bible in a refreshing and insightful slant. Each story is cleverly spun to draw the reader into a world of curiosity and introspection. The author creates a platform of possibilities in rethinking perspective and gives new meaning to girl power. As women in the Bible share impactful stories of their own lives, they offer sound wisdom to the contemporary woman today. Reflections at the end of each chapter invite the reader to engage in careful thought about various relationships in their own lives. The entrepreneurial woman is encouraged to expand her awareness of leadership and influence, while considering practical and powerful principles.

I really enjoyed REvision...It was great to learn about the women of the bible, their contributions and how to apply it to modern day situations.
