No thought there would be an In depth story not just a sentence about the topics

Not what I thought it would be. It needs more information like what happened,how it happened. I need more information.

short fun fact book for Harry lovers.

I'm embarrassed to give this as a gift. 2/3 of every page is blank. No picture or anything. Just a short spell on each page. My 8 year old makes better books.

Overall, this was a good book. It is fun as well as a short and easy read. There are a few mistakes I caught, but the facts are otherwise pretty solid. Number 13 says throughout all the books, there are 4 narrators when there are actually 5; the fifth is Narcissa Malfoy. Number 55 says that the password into Dumbledore's office is sherbert lemon, which is not 100% true; it is that, in fact, at one point, but like how the password for the Gryffidor common room changes every so often, so does Dumbledore's. I would not recommend buying this book, but if you can get it for free, and are as crazy about Harry Potter as I am, I would suggest reading it. I rated it 4 stars because most of the facts are solid and interesting, and I learned some new things about the Harry Potter characters and cast too.

A cute book but I feel that the story trivia and movie trivia should have been separated. Don't pay for this "book". Read for free if available.

fact 30 says harry does not cast a successful spell on sorcerer stone but he bangs the troll with a club using wingardium leviosa ;)

The facts themselves were good, but like a few other people I was thinking different things like little stories or something! Either way, this book was very good and I strongly recommend it to all Harry Potter fans who would like to know more!
