This my favorite script ever written. I first read it back in the mid 90's after the movie came out, but I somehow lost my copy of it over the years. I bought this one to replace it and couldn't be happier. The thing that I love about this copy is Frank's commentary after the script about scenes that we were cut, how scenes came about and the best part him explaining the grueling job called filmmaking. Extremely useful insight. I highly recommend this script to all writers, aspiring or working. In fact this is a must read if you are a writer. Yes, it's that's great!

An interesting peek in how the movie was created from Stephen King's original story and re-made in Darabont's image. The transformation of King's story (about storytelling) into a film script (about prison life and Andy's escape) is fascinating. I suppose we've all seen the movie and remember it with fondness. Of particular interest in the script were the decisions Darabont and his crew made in changing it--sometimes owing to time or weather constraints and sometimes for simple expediency.

Hands down my fav film of all time. As an inspiring screenwriter this was at the top of my must-buy screenplay list. A fantastic screenplay, turned into a phenomenal film.

I remember back when I bought this in 2011. . I forgot all about it for about 6 months. . Just wanted to say this script was amazing. Thank you

You see the name Stephen King and expect it to be horror. Instead, this is about relationships in the worst possible environment. The characters are what characters should be. The bad are bad to the point of unbelievable cruelty. And, it is hard to remember that the good are convicted felons.

Great product and shipping was really fast.

I bought the book as a present for a friend it was the perfect gift she actually worked on the show

I was hoping to take this screenplay and turn it into a stageplay myself, which is why I ordered the script, to take a look at it.
