Jay P. Harmon earned his B.S. and M.Ed. from Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He began his teaching career in 1982 and has taught in public and private schools in Louisiana and Texas. Mr. Harmon has taught AP[®] European History, AP[®] United States History, and AP[®] World History. He was an exam essay reader in AP[®] European History and AP[®] United States History and was a table leader and question leader in AP[®] World History from 2002 to 2015. He served on the AP[®] World History Test Development Committee for five years. His AP[®] European History and AP[®] World History websites (harmonhistory.com) have been go-to resources for students and teachers for more than a decade. From 1998 to 2015, Mr. Harmon served as a consultant to the College Board[®], holding workshops and summer institutes in the United States and abroad. He has also contributed to the development of several world history textbooks. He teaches at Houston Christian High School.

Great book for studying. Just make sure you order the correct edition (ie, 2017 vs 2016) - my son's study buddy received an older version. I'll post more info when we get the test results ;)

I loved this book because this book is concise and only deals with the essential information. My AP teacher recommended it to me, and I am glad he did. If you're a student who wants to get a good quality review, I believe this is the right book for you.

My son used it for his AP test.

My daughter said it's been extremely helpful

After teaching AP World History for 7 years where 90% of my students pass, this is the only test prep book I would buy for my students. It follows the course curriculum, has up-to-date information, has just enough information to digest, and Jay Harmon is a great guy. What more can you ask for? :)

good

My daughter thought this book was an extremely important part of her AP review. She plans to use this series for future AP test reviews.

Fast delivery. Item was as described. Great purchase.
