Lee "Drew" Andrews began playing guitar at age 14. His first years of college were spent studying Physics. When he found himself skipping many of his core classes in order to spend more time playing guitar, he decided it may be better to change majors. Drew then studied Guitar Performance at Utah State University, where he also minored in Technical and Professional Writing. In 2002 he took a position with Mel Bay Publications as a guitar editor and since has authored several best selling publications.
