Customer Reviews

I was unhappy to find that they were not as advertised on your site. What you advertised is cards published by Yosemite Association. The cards you sent me were published by Yosemite Conservancy. Since I have a box of cards published by Yosemite Association (published in Malaysia) that I bought a couple of years ago I knew immediately when I opened the cards you sent that they were not the same. The ones you sent are published by Yosemite Conservancy (published in China). There is a big difference in the colors used in printing and I far prefer the Association cards. You might want to change your listing of cards to reflect the correct publisher. Thank you.

These note cards are beautiful. I will likely frame three or four. Chiura Obata was an artist with amazing talent and he captured some of my favorite scenes of Yosemite. I appreciate the fine quality of the cards.

I love these so much that it pains me some to write in them and send them away (until I remember I'm sending them to someone who will also appreciate them). I will definitely buy more of these once I run out of them.

Unable to find a print by Obata, I found the note cards to be a great find. As another reviewer has written, they are suitable for framing. I find his style interesting and unique.

surprised at quality of the reproduction on these note cards. These are a gift and the recipients are delighted with them as am I

These cards are beautiful...I sent them to everyone I know who appreciates beautiful art.

Saw these when visiting Yosemite last year, didn't buy them, regretting it when I got home. My first thought was and there they were. Best interpretation of this beautiful park.

The cards are wonderful, but the box arrived dented.
