Customer Reviews

This is a great book on general information for these cities as well as specific facts and details for individual towns. I learned a lot. It was a great read before my trip and on the plane, but didn't find it necessary to carry around once we arrived.

Fodor's guide is more useful for upcoming trip. It has much more info. Plus, the accommodations suggested in Lonely Planet were all unavailable.

A good book to take along on the vacation

Just what I expect from Lonely Planet, enough detail in a relatively compact size.

Great recommendations and tours!

A really great little book loaded with practical information.

Gave it as a gift to a first time visitor to the area. She found it very helpful.

Great guide, as always!
