Synopsis

Every crafty girl knows that beauty comes from within, but she also knows that makeup can make life a little prettier, a little glossier, and a lot more fun. Crafty Girl: Makeup-the latest in Chronicle Books' popular series for tweens and teens - explains how to do it right, revealing the secrets to glowing skin, shapely brows, bright eyes, lovely lips, and so much more. Here are tips on what to buy and how to use it, plus lots of simple recipes for whipping up custom batches of glosses, blushes, and bronzers. But the fun doesn't end there. A section called The Looks offers up easy professional tips and step-by-step instructions for creating 20 different faces, from fresh to fabulous. Whether she's a clean teen or glamour queen, Crafty Girl: Makeup has it all: the hints, the help, and the looks she'll love.

Jennifer Traig is a self-professed craft addict and San Francisco-based writer with a PhD in literature. Host to many successful sleepovers in her junior years, including several at which no one cried, she is the author of the Crafty Girl series as well as Judaikitsch (0-8118-3188-4).

Good rules for new makeup users, as well as tips and trends for the seasoned makeup user ! Not thrilled with store bought makeup ? Let's make your own ! I love it !!

I ordered it for my 9 year old & it's a little difficult for her but she will enjoy this when she is a bit older.

This book is very helfpul for beginners. It tells you what colors are good for your complexion,which is NOT always obvious when you're just beginning. With basic pointers on achieving a Healthy Glow to Screen Queen look. It's a very fun book, and although it's obviously old news to an old pro, It's called Crafty GIRL for a reason. It's for beginners who don't know how to put on make-up in a way that looks nice.So if your wondering how to look as natural as possible, or be Cleopatra's double,(see Cleopatra look, page 97) This book is for you!

"girl" is the right phrase- not for grownup women, and I thought there would be more homemade recipes in the book.

Ridiculous. Information in this book is written for preteens. Worthless for anyone familiar with or who has experience with make-up.

I love Makeup; Things to Make and Do, because it's very helpful and tells me how to keep my face looking fab without me having to spend a lot of money on makeup I don't even know about. You can even make stuff at your own house, so you don't even have to spend any money at all! I would definitely recommend this book if you're a beginner or need to get back on track with your "skills." Just check it out!

This book might be OK for beginers, but for everone else it is not worth buying. it repeats things a lot of stuff and states the obvious (like if you are using a powder blush you don't need to dust loose powder all over your face. duh). Also some of the things it suggests you make are little more than common sense and for the lip gloss recipies they sugest that you can use an empty film canister for a constaner. DO NOT DO THAT!!! There are chemicals in film canisters that can hurt you, even if you wash it out first. Some of the looks ideas it gives you are obivous and similar. With the natural looks, they only change 1-2 things, like eye liner or no eye liner.

This book was a good learning tool for tool for me. If you are learning to do makeup or you are a pro it is a good investment. I really like different styles that it shows you and the recapies for the lip gloss so it gets a 5 from me!
