Live Worship with Robin Mark in Northern Ireland

I AM A GOSPEL RECORDING ARTIST, AND I HAD ALL OF ROBINS CDS. I SUFFERED ONE AWFUL TRAGEDY AFTER ANOTHER IN 2001 AND I LOST THEM ALL ALONG WITH EVERYTHING ELSE. HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE HAVE BEEN BLESSED BY ROBINS WORK, I OFTEN WOULD USE THESE SONGS IN MY CONCERTS AND THE FOLKS WOULD SING WITH ME. I WOULD ALWAYS INVOLVE MY AUDIENCES. I MADE IT VERY CLEAR, THEY WERE NOT SPECTATORS AT A RELIGIOUS CONCERT, BUT PARTICIPATORS IN A WORSHIP SESSION FOR JESUS CHRIST OUR KING, HIGH AND LIFTED UP. ONE DAY, I DISCOVERED I HAD ACCESS TO TECH. I FOUND ROBINS WORSHIP ON LINE. PRAISE GOD. I WANT IT ALL BACK. OH I DESIRE TO COME TO BELFAST, IF IT IS MEANT TO BE I WILL. UNTIL, I WILL CONTINUE TO PRAISE AND WORSHIP MY LORD WITH ROBIN AND OTHER KIN-FOLK IN CHRIST. AS ABBA SUPPLIES, I SHALL BUY.LOL..THANKYOU SO MUCH. MY WISH LIST IS A LONG ONE. ANGEL HEAVEN

5 stars are not enough! This is an awesome CD!

Powerful, Sensitive, Timeless music. Lifts you up and inspires as only a Celtic Worship Leader like

Robin Mark can! We have purchased this about once a year for the last 5 years... because, this all time favorite constantly "disappears" when we end up giving our copy to visitors or friends. We LOVE it!

I've always enjoyed Irish music, though their pop can be rather depressing--esp. Paddy Reilly. But add the message of Jesus to the simple, singable nature of much Irish song, and you have a mix that can't be beaten. I heard the last 3 tracks of this CD on a Christian radio station on one of the many nights I have been plagued with insomnia. All I wanted to do was find the Cd after that. I did, and, being an import, I paid a bit for it. But was it a great investment. Our church sings "Be Unto Your Name," and I'd love to hear them sing any of the tracks from here. "Garments of Praise," "Shout to the North," and Revival, the first 3 tracks, all have hooks I catch myself singing sometimes on my daily walk to work. I have played this CD repeatedly during some very difficult times I have encountered, and never failed to be cheered by Robin Mark and the band. I now own all 3 CD's he has produced, and await even more if he ever releases them.

Every piece is a statement and a prayer for the people, the land, and revival. This particular album was used in prison ministry in Fort Worth, Texas, and proved to be invaluable. The music touched the hearts of each one present. In fact, one evening, two angels were present among us and showed themselves. As soon as they were noticed, they were gone. They flew off to the ceiling corner and were gone! When told about the angels, the inmates were astonished. One said, "An angel in this place? Amazing!" A must have album for personal worship and praise and for group gatherings. In a word, Robin's music is annointed!

This is a unique, uplifting, utterly brilliant worship album. I can honestly say that I had never before heard of Irish-based music in the form of a worship concert album. The message in the songs is uplifting and spiritual, and the music itself is wonderful. Be prepared to have your heartstrings tugged on songs like the opener "Garments of Praise", "How Great Are You Lord", and "Be Unto Your Name". "Revival" is a wonderful, epic, thought-provoking, anthemic song. "Shout to the North" is a catchy, uptempo number. "Days of Elijah", as the closing track, is the ultimate uplifting masterpiece. My congregation has used this brilliant track as a sending song every couple of months or so for the past couple of years, and it is an absolute congregational favorite in a church where contemporary worship is finally beginning to be embraced. For sure, "Days of Elijah" is representative of an album that is an absolute winner. The songs are based on passages in the Bible, and the music is touching and uplifting and truly praises Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior. In addition, the songs are not at all hard to learn and sing along to. I highly recommend this album.

The selections on this cd range from the joyful and hopeful (Revival) to the peaceful and contemplative. I was a latecomer to Robin Mark and his music, but am now a committed fan. It is a lovely blend of the Celtic sound of pipes and violins with the beat and words of the best praise music. I found it a wonderful way to enter into a worshiping/celebratory mindset. If you are checking the sound out, listen to some of the songs on YouTube and include the lyrics....they are powerful.

I received this CD within the time the seller stated. This was one of the items that my husband said he wanted for our anniversary. So I found it here and purchased it hoping that it was in good condition. My husband has listened to this CD and absolutely loves it. Thank you so much for making these CD's available at such a terrific price.
