Customer Reviews

This is absolutely by far the best Chicago guide I have ever read, and I've read most of them. This is a must-have for anyone visiting Chicago, moving there, living there, or even thinking about moving or visiting there. Full-color, glossy photos, chock-full of interesting historical information, completely comprehensive coverage of just about anything you can think of in Chicago, great detail on all the important landmarks. Half the book is a general overview of Chicago culture, including politics, sports, crime, history, music, etc.--all the things that Chicago is famous for. The other half is a more traditional travel guide organized geographically with lots of information about each site and neighborhood. Full-color maps, event calendar, hotel and restaurant guide, day trip guide, and more. If you are going to buy 1 Chicago travel guide, make it this one. Better than the Michelin Green Guide, Eyewitness Chicago, Access, Lonely Planet, etc. Cannot say enough good things about this book.

Found this guidebook very useful, even though it was nearly 8 years old ! Great photos as well !

I bought this used, but it was in great condition! I love Insight Guides, but couldn't stomach coughing up the full price for a 2-day trip to Chicago. This was a great alternative.
