I bought this for my 6 year old and he immediately loved it & started teaching himself songs. I easily followed the instructions to find the correct placement of the note stickers! they are perfect!!! I played twinkle twinkle little star & my son moved me out of the way....found Camptown Racers sing that song doda doda & started learning & playing it! I will order MORE E-Z Play Today song books for him!!!

My 4 year old was able to understand the concept of these but will need some assistance from me in order to understand timing of the notes. She really enjoys playing from this book. However, I am only giving it 3 stars because there are some mistakes in the book with the colors not matching to the corresponding notes which is very disappointing."I've Been Working on the Railroad" has mistakes and I haven't gone through the whole book to see if there are any others. I don't want to go through the hassle of returning it so I'll keep it but I'll have to write corrections in it.

My 2 children ages 9 and 5 both showed some interest in playing the piano. I have no musical ability and I wanted to make sure my kids were serious before we paid for lessons and bought a piano. The book was easy to follow. The stickers easily can be removed. My 9 year old was able to play Mary Had a Little Lamb within 10 minutes. It took my 5 year old about 30 minutes. I was worried that the kids would be hooked on the stickers and not want to play without them. Both my children have been able to go use pianos without the stickers and play the songs now. This was a great small investment to show that my kids were ready to learn to play the piano. I am happy as well, because I was able to learn to play a few Christmas songs from the book so the book has helped both the kids and adults in our family.

Great for beginning students. Includes chords.

This book makes it easy for a six-year-old to play a song on the piano. First time she sat and used it we could recognize the melody.

Very nice book

I got this for my 8 yr old grand daughter for Xmas. She is a budding pianist and wanted to also have a music book with the words to each song. This book was a hit!

Simple in easy
